

BENCH OF FRIENDSHIP

This bench is a gift from the people of Russia and brought to the Lakes Region in 2009 as an expression of gratitude for the work of “Access to Ideas” an organization formed to help open libraries in small Russian villages and to provide books for them. The bench is located on the grounds of the Gilman Library from fall until spring, and at the Town Docks in Wolfeboro during the summer.